SMITH BRANCH OF THE MOSHER FAMILY

1. Abraham M. Smith
   Rachel Van Hyson (his wife)

2. Harmonius V. Smith
   Hannah Westgale (his wife)

3. Caroline L. Smith (daughter)
   Levi Mosher, her husband
   Geo. M. Waterbury, her husband

Rachel Van Hyson came from Holland when a little girl of 12 years, just before the Revolutionary War. George Washington's army was three days passing her mother's house with the largest army the United States ever had at that time, 14,000 men.

CAROLINE LOUISE SMITH

Caroline Louise Smith was born July 6, 1811, in Providence, Saratoga Co., New York and at the time of her death was 71 years, 7 months, and 21 days old. She was married to her first husband, Levi Mosher, at the age of 16 years, in the town of her birth. They belonged to the Christian Church in Providence, New York. Levi Mosher died June 26, 1855.

To this marriage was born eight children: Charles Delavan, Elsie Perlina, Mary Jane, Levi Edwin, Hannah Levina, Sarah Adelca, Caroline Louisa and Merribah Ann.

She was again united in marriage to George M. Waterbury on February 1, 1860, in Ridgeway, New York. Her second husband died July 4, 1864. Her later years were lived at Sandwich, Illinois. She lived as she died, a devoted Christian and a co-worker with all Christian people whom she knew. She was buried in Oak Ridge Cemetery, Sandwich, Illinois.

GEORGE M. WATERBURY

George M. Waterbury was born July 15, 1812. On April 5, 1834, he was married to Rebecca Bailey. To this marriage was born four children: Mercy Ann Waterbury being the oldest, the other three children died at an early age during September, 1847.

Rebecca Bailey Waterbury died May 29, 1858. George M. Waterbury married Caroline Smith Mosher on February 1, 1860, and the date of his death was July 4, 1864.

LEVI EDWIN (E.L.) MOSHER AND MERCY ANN WATERBURY MOSHER

Levi Edwin (E.L.) Mosher was born in Providence, Saratoga Co., New York, on January 2, 1834, the son of Levi and Caroline Louise Smith Mosher.

Mercy Ann Waterbury was born in Orleans Co., New York, on August 11, 1835, the daughter of George M. and Rebecca Waterbury.

On March 14, 1854, they were united in marriage and took up their residence at Ridgeway, Orleans Co., New York, and in 1857 moved to DeKalb Co., Illinois, later returning to Ridgeway, New York. Three years later they moved back to DeKalb Co., Illinois, and purchased a farm in Afton Township, DeKalb Co., Illinois.

To this union was born four sons: George Levi, Charles Waterbury, Grant Edwin and Frank Mosher.

Mr. and Mrs. Mosher were much devoted to their family and took great pleasure in Christian work. They took an active part in the organization and building of the Afton Center Church which was built in 1872.

In 1882 they moved to the city of DeKalb, Illinois, and were active members in the First Baptist Church there.

This couple was admired and respected by a very wide circle of friends about the DeKalb County, Illinois, area. Mrs. Mosher died from stomach cancer on August 22, 1899. Mr. Mosher died in Chicago, Illinois, from a heart attack on September 28, 1900. They were laid to rest in the Afton Cemetery, DeKalb Co., Illinois.

CHARLES WATERBURY MOSHER AND ELLA ROLLINS MOSHER

Charles Waterbury Mosher was born in Orleans Co., New York, on September 4, 1861, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Levi Edwin (E.L.) Mosher. His parents moved to DeKalb Co., Illinois, when he was but a small boy.

Ella Rollins was born in DeKalb Co., Illinois, on January 13, 1862, the daughter of Gilman W. and Helen A. Rollins. Her girlhood was spent on a farm in Afton Township, DeKalb Co., Illinois.

On September 4, 1882, Charles Waterbury Mosher and Ella Rollins were united in marriage and immediately moved to a 320 acre farm in Carroll Co., Iowa, near Lake City.

Upon selling their farm, they returned to DeKalb Co., Illinois, in the spring of 1891, where Mr. Mosher was engaged in the carpenter trade in DeKalb, Illinois, until the summer of 1893. During September 1893, they moved to a farm in Afton Township, DeKalb Co., Illinois, and a few years later established a creamery on the home farm, which supplied butter to a large part of the DeKalb market.

Politically, Mr. Mosher was a Prohibitionist and a strong Temperance man, never failing to do all he could to help in this cause, and was ever faithful to the duties of his church.

Mrs. Mosher also directed her energies in activities of a worthwhile nature, much devoted to her family, an active worker in church work, Afton Women's Club, and the Women's Christian Temperance Union (W.C.T.U.), serving as President of the Afton Chapter for many years.

To this union was born six children: Edna Nora, Lee Edwin, Ray Gilman, Clarence Wesley, and Elsie Helen Mosher.

Charles Waterbury Mosher died June 12, 1905. Mrs. Ella Rollins Mosher died on October 21, 1934. Both Mr. and Mrs. Mosher were laid to rest in the Afton Cemetery, DeKalb County, Illinois.
